

Latin America Practice At-A-Glance

WilmerHale's team is equipped to handle critical issues in Latin America, having worked on significant cases across multiple countries. Recognized as a Top International Law Firm in Latin America by LatinVex since 2021, we have over 100 Spanish-or Portuguese-speaking attorneys, with many hailing from Latin America and the Iberian Peninsula. Our team has extensive experience living and working across the region—a crucial asset, given the diversity of political systems and cultural differences among Latin American countries.

PRACTICE AT A GLANCE

- International Arbitration: WilmerHale has represented corporations and individuals in bet-the-firm investor-state and private international arbitrations.
- International Trade: We have advised clients in energy, infrastructure, and financial services to address trade-related challenges across Latin America. The team also includes a former lead negotiator of the investment chapter of the US-Mexico-Canada Agreement (USMCA).
- Mergers & Acquisitions and Venture Capital: Our team has successfully assisted numerous clients, including many Latin American companies, in securing US-based funding and executing mergers and acquisitions, particularly with US interests.
- International Litigation: WilmerHale has advised clients in a variety of complex, cross-border disputes, including disputes relating to the Foreign Sovereign Immunities Act, the International Organization Immunities Act, extradition, government takings, practice before international human rights tribunals, and other facets of public and private international law.
- Antitrust: We consistently help clients secure antitrust clearance for mergers and joint ventures, handle investigations into anticompetitive behavior, and resolve antitrust issues, collaborating closely with co-counsel in Latin America, the US and the EU.
- Securities and Financial Services: Our team has decades of experience advocating before global financial services regulators, providing counseling to clients through government investigations, hearings, enforcement and litigation.
- Investigations, Criminal Litigation and Compliance: WilmerHale has an impressive roster of attorneys who are experienced in Latin American cross-border investigations. Our team has been recognized globally since 2015 in Foreign Corrupt Practices Act investigations and compliance—handling matters spanning a vast range of industries and enforcement agencies.
